CHRIST THE TEACHER INSTITUTE Catholic Scholars Program

Description and Application for Rising Sophomores, Juniors, Seniors 2017/2018

CHRIST THE TEACHER INSTITUTE

The Christ the Teacher Institute (CTI) is a mission of the Sheil Catholic Center at Northwestern University. Its purpose is to form Catholic leaders for the Church and the world through the integration of scholarship, prayer, service, and leadership. The Institute oversees the Sheil Seminars, the Catholic Scholars Program, the Catholic Fellowships in Church Leadership, the Simpson Essay Prize, and the Sheil Speaker's Series.

CATHOLIC SCHOLARS PROGRAM

In order to enter into an adult relationship with Christ, Catholic Scholars take seriously the commitment to deepen their understanding of faith, pray on a regular basis, serve the needs of others, and provide leadership that is distinctively Catholic. Catholic Scholars are theologically grounded, spiritually alive, articulate in their faith, and joyfully involved in Catholic tradition. Graduates of this program will be well-prepared to serve on parish councils, teach CCD, participate in liturgy committees and lead social justice efforts. In addition they are able to bring Christian principles to their families and careers. Those seeking entry into the program on a basic (3 quarter) or advanced (6 quarter) track may apply between May 1 and August 25. The program is normally 6 quarters in length (two years). At the end of the first year, the student, in discernment with the director, will have the option of leaving the program with a one year certificate. Seniors may enter the program for a one year certificate.

STIPENDS

Stipends help pay for the expenses of the Catholic Scholars Program and provide additional self-earned income to pay for Northwestern's tuition. All first year Scholars will receive $2,000 (less the cost of service trips and/or retreats) Scholars who continue into the second year for the advanced certificate will receive an additional $3,000 which may be used to pay for additional retreats or service trips or for other expenses Stipends are paid out at the end of the academic year, unless special arrangements are made. Students who become Catholic Scholars may decline all or part of their scholarship so that others might take advantage of the program.

The scholarship money given here will not reduce NU's commitment to meet full demonstrated need. Any part of the scholarship not used for required costs of the program (i.e. cost of service trips) would be considered an outside source to reduce the self-help portion of the student's financial aid award. In very rare instances, the scholarship may affect Northwestern scholarship assistance. No money is given for co-op or intern quarters away from campus or for fifth year students. Entry into the program assumes completion of at least the one year track. If a student drops out of the program without completing at least the one year track, the student is obligated to reimburse Sheil for all scholarship funds given up until the point of departure.

PROGRAM DIRECTOR

CTI is directed by Mary Deeley, who holds a Master of Divinity from Yale University and a PhD in Hebrew Bible and Early Christian Literature from Northwestern University. Dr. Deeley has worked and ministered on college, university, and seminary campuses since 1978. She has written many articles on scripture and liturgy and has lectured extensively on scripture, spirituality, ministry, and faith issues. She has particular interest in discernment and in leadership development. Dr. Deeley is the author of “Mothers, Lovers, Priests, Prophets, and King: What the Old Testament Tells Us About God and Ourselves,” “Daybreaks: Daily Reflections for Advent and Christmas,” and “Remembering God: Resting in the Midst of Life,” all from Liguori Press.
