The challenge of Jesus Christ is to look to others’ interests rather than to one’s own.

It is to look beyond one’s small world,

which may be filled with satisfaction and fulfillment,

to look out into that world where people suffer and die.

And it is to go beyond talk and become involved in action for the transformation of the world.

SHEIL ELECTIVE SEMINAR
JESUS IN THE GOSPELS
Open to everyone

For Christians, the Gospels hold a special place as the books which tell us most about what Jesus said and did in his 33 years of life. They also come at the subject from different perspectives. Each writer draws a picture of Jesus that emphasizes what the writer sees as important. For one it’s the connection between Jesus and Moses; for another, it’s the image of Jesus as the one who restores us; and still another latches on to Jesus as the Word (Logos) of God. This seminar will take a careful look at Jesus in each gospel, discuss what each one adds to our understanding, and what happens when we put them all together.

Seminar meets on Thursday: October 12, 19, 26, and November 2, from 6:45-8:00 p.m. Facilitated by Mary Deeley. This seminar is open to everyone. Free for Students. $5 for all others. Register at bit.ly/2wbQa33
JOIN US ON OCTOBER 10 AND LEARN ABOUT CAREER OPPORTUNITIES IN SPORTS MANAGEMENT
You've heard about economic challenges in Detroit - its 60% drop in population over the last half century, its manufacturing jobs being outsourced, its infrastructure collapses, and its economic state of emergency. But do you know about Detroit's advent of economic and community development? This Martin Luther King weekend students from the Sheil Catholic Center will have the opportunity to hear the stories of community leaders making a difference in Detroit. This service-learning trip will use the fundamental tenets of Catholic Social Teaching to enter into a greater understanding and appreciation for the grass roots work being done in Detroit and in our own communities. For more information contact Tim Higgins or go to our website sheilcatholiccenter.org.
