Third Sunday of Ordinary Time

"Where is my life?

My people are dying

This is not what I meant the world to be

Where is my love?

My children are crying

So many hearts full of pain and misery

But I set you free

so you would be a living sign

For all to see that I live, that I live.

I have no hands but yours,

I live my life through you

The written word must be alive in you

I have no hands but yours,

I've given all to you

You are my hands

I live my life through you."

Joanne Boyce

FORMATION OF A DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS COMMITTEE

Does our faith community care enough? Do we have the will to change the statistics?

54 Million Americans report they have been a VICTIM of Domestic Violence.*

* Number represents % of U.S. population ages 15+

- 60% of Americans know a victim of domestic violence or sexual assault.
- 73% of parents with children under the age of 18 said they have not talked with them about domestic violence or sexual assault.
- Even though 75% of Americans say they would act help a stranger being abused, the reality is most people do not help.
- But 64% of Americans say if we talk more about domestic violence and sexual assault, it would make it easier to help someone.

"NO MORE Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault, Survey of Attitudes and Experiences of Teens and Adults,"

To learn more, join us to discern the formation of a parish-based domestic violence outreach ministry at the Sheil Catholic Center Monday, January 22, 2018 from 7:00 - 8:30 p.m.

How can the Sheil Catholic Center support domestic violence victims and educate our community to prevent domestic violence?

The faith community at the Sheil Catholic Center is beginning an important discussion to raise awareness about Domestic Violence issues, and its prevalence in families throughout our society.

The Sheil Catholic Center wants to reach out to provide opportunity for emotional, physical and spiritual healing. We hope you can join us.

“THE CATHOLIC CHURCH and
THE RACIAL DIVIDE in the UNITED STATES” at the Sheil Catholic Center
Thursday | February 1 | 7:00 p.m.

The Most Reverend Edward K. Braxton, Ph.D., S.T.D.
Bishop of Belleville IL

The Most Rev. Edward K. Braxton, Ph.D., S.T.D.
Bishop of Belleville, Illinois

The Bishop’s address will examine key elements contributing to the racial divide in the United States and the emergence of the Black Lives Matter Movement from the perspective of the Catholic Church. He will explore the reasons why only a small number of African-Americans are Catholics (2.9 million out of nearly 70 million American Catholics), the “all lives matter” vs. “Black lives matter” debate, and the negative impact of the erroneous expressions “minorities” and “minority groups.” He will conclude by exploring the question of what can the Catholic Church do to help bridge the racial divide.

The Bishop’s formal education and writings in systematic theology have led to teaching positions at Harvard Divinity School, the University of Notre Dame, the Catholic University of America, and the North American College in Rome, in recent years he has turned his scholarship to the question of the racial divide.

UPDATE ON TO TEACH WHO CHRIST IS AND STEWARDSHIP COMMITMENTS

Last year, in cooperation with the archdiocese of Chicago, we launched To Teach Who Christ Is a 5-year pledge program to benefit struggling parishes and schools, as well as to benefit Sheil in the areas of outreach, formation/education, worship and facilities. 40% of what is collected goes to the archdiocese; 60% comes back to Sheil.

The goal we were given based on our Sunday collections was $190,000.00. The original pledged amount was well over that: $363,610.00. That original amount was dialed down due to pledge cancellations and other adjustments in people's original pledges. The total we are now hoping for is $286,781 by the end of the five year term.

Thus far, we have sent $47,096.00 to the archdiocese; we have banked $70,645.00 for Sheil, for a total actually collected of $117,741.00, which means we have made 62% of our original goal, and 40% of the amount actually pledged.

Thus far, we have used monies collected to help four families with emergency needs. We have also purchased educational materials to be used here at Sheil.

So thank you VERY much. Please keep up with your pledges. (We do apologize for the archdiocese's slow processing of people's checks. We have registered your concerns about that problem.) In regard to stewardship: See the loaves and fishes multiply on our window display. Stewardship commitments to date: 154. Our goal is 210 commitments (last year we reached 200) So keep sending in those commitments for 2018. If you haven't made a commitment, you can still do so. (Students, you too can make a pledge, and if you wish, make your donations to Sheil through TEXT TO GIVE) Give what you can afford. Please remember that good stewardship also involves giving of your time and talent to Sheil or to some other organization. Thanks for your generosity. We're in this together.
