For fifteen years, the Sheil Catholic Center has sponsored an international service trip for our undergraduate students to San Jose de Cusmapa, Nicaragua where we work in collaboration with LaFamilia de Padre Fabretto. We are excited to open this opportunity up to associates and young adults.

Kevin Marinacci, CEO of Fabretto is a Sheil and NU alum, Kellogg MBA, 1996. Sheil's partnership with Fabretto stems from our special relationship with Kevin.

Applications (due April 1) and additional information are now available online at http://bit.ly/2n7womC. Contact Cindy Ulrich with questions culrich.sheilcatholiccenter@gmail.com.

CRS Rice Bowl helps us encounter Lent. Please pick up a kit in the Commons and "Share the Journey" with our brothers and sisters in Christ.

We are called to love our neighbor. But, like the scholar in the scripture passage, we may find ourselves wondering, “Who is my neighbor?” This Lent, CRS Rice Bowl—Catholic Relief Services’ Lenten faith-in-action program, will help us answer that question.

We urge you to visit their website www.crsricebowl.org/about, and follow along with the reflections and prayers for a deeper and transforming Lenten experience. We also invite you to go to pick up one of our Lenten calendars to find out what we have to offer right here at Sheil. Copies are in the Commons and on our website.
On Thursday, March 22 at 7:00 p.m., Father James Martin, SJ will be speaking on the humanity and divinity of Jesus. "Who do you say that I am?” That's the question that Jesus asked of his disciples. Even then they had a hard time answering. Come learn why the answer must involve both the historical Jesus, the man who walked the dusty roads of first-century Judea and Galilee, and the Christ of faith, the miracle-worker now risen from the dead. Discover what it means to say that Jesus is "fully human and fully divine.

Father James Martin is a Jesuit priest, editor at large of America Magazine, and best-selling author of Building a Bridge, Seven Last Words, and Jesus: A Pilgrimage. Father Martin has written for a wide variety of publications and is a regular commentator in the international and national media. He was appointed by Pope Francis to be a Consultor for the Vatican's Secretariat of Communication in 2017.

This event is free and open to the public. However you MUST have a ticket and present it at the door. You can get your ticket on this website: http://bit.ly/2EMG7sF

Race
Are We So Different?

Open Now | Until July 15, 2018

It’s a simple truth. People are different. Throughout history, these differences have been a source of community, strength, and personal identity. They have also been the basis for discrimination and oppression.

Race, developed by the American Anthropological Association in collaboration with the Science Museum of Minnesota, is the first national exhibition to tell the stories of race from the biological, cultural, and historical points of view. Combining these perspectives offers an unprecedented look at race and racism in the United States.

Sheil Lenten Calendar

We invite you to go to pick up one of our Lenten calendars to find out what we have to offer here at Sheil to deepen your Lenten experience. Copies are in the Commons and on our website.
