“Christ is the power of God”; his weakness is more powerful than our strength.

Our dying with Christ in Lent is an identification with the power of Christ crucified.

Our calling, then, is to be strong, not weak.

The commandments represent not just a set of rules but an ideal of a social order for which we are to give our lives, as Christ did on the cross.

We cannot stand by idly as the world rides roughshod over the ideal established by God’s law.

We must be strong. We must overthrow injustice, just as Jesus overturned the tables of the money-changers.

The oppressors of people and their evil systems must arouse our anger. “Get them out of here!”

Welcome Thomas Awiapo
Wednesday | March 7 at 12:15 p.m.
Learn about the impact that CRS Rice Bowl has on people around the world and why our Lenten almsgiving to CRS Rice Bowl is so important.

Thomas Awiapo tells a truly inspiring story of survival and success. Growing up in a small African village in Ghana, Thomas was orphaned before the age of ten and left on his own to struggle for survival.

His search for food led him to an elementary school, where he was fed a small meal every day. He survived, studied, and eventually won scholarships to attend college. Please join us on Wednesday, March 7 at 12:15 p.m. at Sheil Catholic Center as we encounter the stories of our brothers and sisters from around the world, whose lives have been touched by your Lenten sacrifices through CRS Rice Bowl.

On Thursday, March 22 at 7:00 p.m., Father James Martin, SJ will be speaking on the humanity and divinity of Jesus. "Who do you say that I am?" That's the question that Jesus asked of his disciples. Even then they had a hard time answering. Come learn why the answer must involve both the historical Jesus, the man who walked the dusty roads of first-century Judea and Galilee, and the Christ of faith, the miracle-worker now risen from the dead. Discover what it means to say that Jesus is "fully human and fully divine.

This event is free and open to the public. However you MUST have a ticket and present it at the door. You can get your ticket on this website: http://bit.ly/2EMG7sF
