Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion

When fishes flew and forests walked
And figs grew upon thorn,
Some moment when the moon was blood
Then surely I was born.

With monstrous head and sickening cry
And ears like errant wings,
The devil's walking parody
On all four-footed things.

The tattered outlaw of the earth,
Of ancient crooked will;
Starve, scourge, deride me: I am dumb,
I keep my secret still.

Fools! For I also had my hour;
One far fierce hour and sweet:
There was a shout about my ears,
And palms before my feet."

— G.K. Chesterton

My Soul Thirsts for God.....

Contact Tim Higgins
t-higgins@u.northwestern.edu
for more information.
Registration on line at <http://bit.ly/2oUowGg>

The Busy Student Retreat was developed to allow a retreat experience without ever leaving campus. The schedule is flexible and it requires only 1 hour per day (half hour meeting with spiritual companion and half hour personal prayer). This retreat allows you to spend a portion of each day to “come away for a while to an out of the way place” to retreat—to pray and reflect, to talk and share, and grow in God’s love for you.

Everything about this retreat is intended to help deepen your awareness of your faith relationship with God. The two most important elements of this retreat are the commitments you make to spend time in personal prayer and reflection each day and meet with a spiritual companion to discuss your journey, as well as, the fruits of your prayer and reflection.

CHRIST THE TEACHER UPCOMING SPRING SEMINARS

CORE Seminar - Open to ALL

Faithful Witness: Scripture and Revelation:

What is the nature of revelation? How does the Church read and interpret Sacred Scripture? What does Tradition have to do with revelation? In what ways do we pass on the faith and what happens when there are disagreements about the content of that faith? This seminar tackles these questions as it looks at the ways God has revealed the divine self to us.

Seminar meets Tuesdays, April 10, 17, May 1, 8, 15 from 6:15-8:05 pm

Mary Deeley facilitates the discussion

Catholic Themes in JRR Tolkien

This seminar explores the religious aspects behind The Lord of the Rings, and other works by J.R.R. Tolkien. Tolkien's world view is greatly influenced by his belief in God and he conveys that belief through his characters, story setting, and powerful symbols. His works have greatly influenced me personally, and the aim of this course is to share with you what I love about Middle-Earth, and why it is considered one of the greatest fantasy stories of all time.

The seminar is open to all students at Northwestern, and will meet Thursdays - April 19, 26, May 3, 10 - from 6:30-7:50 pm.

Seminar is facilitated by Nick Hauger '20

A dynamic society accords respect to political activities and the choice of a career in politics, and it needs to do so for society to thrive. Politics is held in low repute today, breeding contempt for the day-to-day activities of citizens and politicians involved in the making of law and public policy. Self-government is a great achievement; both rare and fragile, it is only achieved by the virtue of those who participate in it. Contempt for politics and politicians imperils our republic by dissuading virtuous men and women from assisting in the making of law and public policy.

VIOLENCE PROTECTION
DIRECTOR
DRAWS INSPIRATION
from the POPE

Last month, the Archdiocese of Chicago announced that former FBI agent Phil Andrew would be its first-ever director of violence prevention initiatives. The position grew out of Cardinal Cupich's April 2017 announcement of an effort to strengthen the work of current anti-violence programs in parishes and schools and other archdiocesan ministries, such as Mercy Home for Boys and Girls, Catholic Charities and Kolbe House, the archdiocese's jail ministry.

Andrew's career with the FBI spanned 21 years and he most recently served in the bureau's Chicago Division as a special agent with a focus on gun violence, counterterrorism, counterintelligence and crisis management.

Andrew and his family attend St. Francis Xavier Parish in Wilmette.
