God of all living things,

On the third day, you brought forth vegetation:
   Every plant that bears seed
   Every tree that bears fruit.

You saw that it was good And it pleased you.

How creation must have danced to know of your pleasure.
May our stewardship of this garden so
   please you.
May our protection of your fertile ground so
   please you.
May our just treatment of all who labor in your felds so
   please you.
May our sharing of and care for your life-giving water so
   please you.
May our sharing of the knowledge of cultivation so
   please you.
May our sharing of the fruits of our harvest so
   please you.

Lord, even before you breathed us into existence,
This garden you createdunfathomably bountiful, unutterably beautiful.
And in your love for us, thought to place us among it.

Make us worthy of this earth:
in what we sow and what we reap,
in what we plant and what we prune.
So that when that last harvest comes,
When we are called to stand before you, It may once more
be said of this people:
"He saw that it was good."

Amen

For our students and friends who never carry cash or checks, you will no longer have to feel guilty when they pass the basket during offertory.
NEW to Sheil this year, TEXT TO GIVE. Just take out your phones, and send your text to 847-584-1437 with the message "GIVE." You will be connected to the site for you to enter your donation. EASY!

UPCOMING
CHRIST THE TEACHER SEMINARS

Open to ALL
Faith and Reason: Friends, Foes, or Partners?
Deacon (soon to be Fr.) Robert Carlton facilitates a 3 week seminar on the relationship between faith and reason, why some people see them in conflict and how the Catholic Church has often celebrated the relationship between them.

Seminar meets on Sunday evenings from 7-8:30 pm on May 6, 13 and June 3. Students are free; Associates of Sheil or Northwestern are $5; All others are $25
Register Today at http://bit.ly/2qKhQuk

Open to ALL
Theology of the Body in Real Life: Dating, Engagement, Marriage, and Beyond
Sheil Associates and young adults, Kelsey and Anthony Chun, facilitate this seminar on some of the principles of Theology of the Body as applied to the real lives of both singles and couples. Because of the nature of the conversation, some sessions may be more appropriate than others for some, but participants are encouraged to go to all 4 sessions. Catholic Scholars are required to attend all 4 sessions.

Seminar starts Thursday, May 17 - Time is 7-8 pm - cost is free for students; $5 for associates of Sheil and affiliates and staff of NU; $25 for all other guests.
Register Today at http://bit.ly/2qL9baY
Sheil Leadership Council

The Sheil Leadership Council invites students and associates to submit applications to serve on the SLC for the 2018-2019 school year. The Leadership Council arose from the Transformation process that Sheil undertook several years ago as an advisory body to help us strengthen our community through faith and fellowship.

The SLC meets monthly to serve Sheil through engaging and listening to community needs, prayer and reflection on these needs, and advising or proposing steps to better satisfy these needs. The recent Coffee & Donuts Sundays, the fall Ministry Fair, the Rides for Students at Christmas break, and the Black History Month liturgical celebration are examples of SLC activity at Sheil.

We will accept applications through Sunday May 6 and all are invited to apply, whether undergrad or grad student, new or long-standing associates. You can apply through the on-line application or there are printed applications available in the office.

If you have any questions you can e-mail the SLC at sheil-leadership-council@googlegroups.com or talk to Jon Schindler, Aireale Rodgers, or Fr. Kevin.

Gaudete et Exsultate 5/3
Pope Francis released his new Apostolic Exhortation, Gaudete et exsultate (Rejoice and be glad), a document that is a challenge to all Christians and intends to “repropose the call to holiness in a practical way for our time.” It’s been widely covered in the news – with a wide range of reactions. We wanted to encourage you to read the document for yourself and discover how it applies to your own life. We look forward to discussing it at upcoming events!

CaSA meets regularly on Thursdays at 8:00 p.m. We invite all undergrads to join us. Newcomers are always welcome! For more information on CaSA, contact Board President Christian Surtz at christiansurtz2020@u.northwestern.edu or Board Secretary Monica Juarez at monicajuarez2020@u.northwestern.edu.

Seventh Annual Gathering and Silent Auction
Wednesday | May 2 @ 6:00 p.m.

Join us for an evening of wine and cheese, silent auction, kinship award and storytelling at Floating World Gallery 1925 N. Halsted St. | Chicago.

This year’s theme is “Restoring Family” – believing that if the family is healthy, the community thrives.

This is our only fundraiser event of the year, so even if you are unable to attend you can still give. We appreciate the support very much! You can donate, register, and buy tickets for the event at http://bit.ly/2H1oHKa.

The PBMR is a network of reconciliation ministries inspired by a spirituality of the Precious Blood. Motivated by the belief that “those who were once far off have been brought near through the blood of Christ” (Eph. 2:13), we work as agents of reconciliation.
