"......She met Compassion and then Wisdom came to greet her. So close, at times, were these Companions that she wept for their intensity and her unworthiness. Still, they walked with her, and everywhere she went, her Companions reached out and blessed the people of her life.

She could only kneel in gratitude, offering her heart of praise to the Divine Companion who had faithfully kept the kindling of love burning in her heart."

Bulk Mailing Underway

Thank you to all of the volunteers who have joined us thus far to assemble the materials for our annual 7,000 piece bulk mailing. The project is moving along. Join us again this week Monday - Friday 10:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

We welcome the experienced and the inexperienced. Our system is streamlined and we can get through this fairly quickly if we have enough volunteers. Come for an hour or stay all day. We appreciate any spare time you have to offer!

Lunch and great conversation are served daily. We look forward to seeing you.
"PRESCRIBED SUICIDE: PAST, PRESENT, AND FUTURE"
Featuring: Rita Marker
Founder and Executive Director to The Patients Rights Council

Come join in a thoughtful mealtime discussion as we return to the original idea of a symposium - a philosophical banquet - and share with physicians, nurses, and other healthcare leaders on what inspires them to improve the human environment surrounding their practice.
