4 HERESIES THAT CHANGED THE CHURCH | CTT SEMINAR

Throughout Church history, theological doctrine was often articulated in response to teachings of otherwise faithful people which the Church finally decided were erroneous statements of faith. Those moments in our past forced the Church to become more precise in its own language and understanding. This seminar will examine 4 of the heretical notions that helped the Church define where it stood and what it believed and the impact that continues to have today.

REGISTER: http://bit.ly/2Nu4tw. The seminar will meet 4 Mondays from 7-8pm October 22, 29, November 5, November 26 (please note the skipped weeks) Free for students | $5 for associate at Sheil or faculty and staff at Northwestern.

Formation Sessions for Sheil Renewal Project
Led by Liturgical Consultant: Fr. Phil Horrigan

We had our first of 5 sessions last week, facilitated by liturgical consultant, Fr. Phil Horrigan. If you missed the first one, no problem. Attend as many as you like. These sessions include prayer, visual presentation, and a period of question and answer, and communal discussion. The entire Sheil community of Students and Associates is encouraged to attend. Formation sessions will take place in the Chapel on consecutive Thursdays from 6:30 p.m. - 8:00 p.m., concluding on November 8, 2018.

October 18, 2018
Gathering
The action of gathering for liturgy includes gestures of hospitality, providing accessibility for everyone, and remembering our baptism. This session explores entry ways, accessibility, and the place for the rites of initiation.

November 1, 2018
Eating and Drinking
The Liturgy of the Eucharist is the heart of our liturgy; the ritual actions of communion and the space where those actions take place receive special attention. The sanctuary area, the Lord's Table, and the place of the reservation are the focus for this session.

October 25, 2018
Proclaiming the Word
The proclamation of the Word of God calls us into the realization that we are the people of God, and that when we gather, we are formed as disciples who share in the mission of Jesus Christ. The place for proclamation is one of the primary areas in the liturgical space.

November 8, 2018
Other elements of the liturgical space
This session provides an opportunity to explore other concerns: for example, the main celebrant's chair, the cross/crucifix, the place for the sacred oils, devotional areas, sacred art, etc.

Name Tag Sundays
We hear it all the time..... "I am so embarrassed. I've been sitting next to this nice couple at Mass for years and I can never remember their names."

Let's change that and get to know one another by name.

Sign up on one of the many "Name Tag" sheets in the Commons. We will create a printed name tag for you to wear on "Name Tag Sundays." Please print clearly. Although we do appreciate creative writing; the purpose of typing the names on the tags is so that they are all legible.

Fabretto Mission
To empower underserved children and their families in Nicaragua through education.

For eleven consecutive years, the Sheil Catholic Center has sponsored a student mission trip to Cusmapa, Nicaragua in collaboration with the Fabretto. Our students have worked on construction and education projects. Unfortunately, due to civil unrest in the country it is not safe for our students to make the trip this year.

We can still support their mission from afar by attending or donating to their event on November 2.

Fabretto CEO, Kevin Marinacci, is a Sheil and NU alum, Kellogg MBA, 1996. Sheil's partnership with Fabretto stems from our special relationship with Kevin.

Volunteers Needed for the Sheil Sunday Nursery

The Sheil Nursery offers parents the opportunity to worship in peace during the 9:30 and 11:00 a.m. Sunday Masses while leaving their small children in a safe, playful and comforting place.

The nursery is open to infants, toddlers and preschool children. It is supervised and staffed by Northwestern students and associate volunteers under the direction of Natalie Conrardy who began the nursery ministry over 20 years ago.

We encourage parents to take advantage of this ministry and ask for student and associate volunteers to step forward to help.

If you would like to serve our community as a nursery volunteer please contact Natalie Conrardy at nlake@orthosns.com.

The 844 Club

The 844 Club meets every Sunday from 8:44 a.m. - 9:30 a.m. to discuss the readings for the upcoming week. The group meets in first floor library.

They use John Powell, S.J.'s book of Annual Reflections as a guide. All are welcome to attend. If you have questions contact Bill Conrardy at billconrardy@gmail.com

Fr. David Kelly to Speak at St. Athanasius October 22

Father David Kelly, C.P.P.S., will talk about “Hope Against Darkness, Reconciliation in Turbulent Times” at 7:30 p.m. Monday, October 22, in the Fitzgerald Center, 2510 Ashland, Evanston. Fr. Kelly is from the Precious Blood Ministry of Reconciliation (PBMR), a network of reconciliation ministries serving people impacted by violence and conflict in the Back of the Yards neighborhood in Chicago and the Cook County Juvenile Detention Center.

The ministries serve young people and their families, especially the mothers. An arts program for the youth includes drawing, painting, music, poetry, theater and film. The center also sends 25 volunteers every week to meet with incarcerated young people in the Juvenile Detention Center.

The talk, part of the Jim Rooney Speaker Series, is sponsored by the St. Athanasius Peace and Justice Ministry.
