Let me be to Thee as the circling bird,
Or bat with tender and air-crisping wings
That shapes in half-light his departing rings,
From both of whom a changeless note is heard.

I have found my music in a common word,
Trying each pleasurable throat that sings
And every praised sequence of sweet strings,
And know infallibly which I preferred.

The authentic cadence was discovered late
Which ends those only strains that I approve,
And other science all gone out of date
And minor sweetness scarce made mention of:
I have found the dominant of my range and state -
Love, O my God, to call Thee Love and Love.

FISH FRYDAYS
Join us at 5:30 p.m. every Friday during Lent for a wide variety of fried, baked and grilled fish, (lots of gluten free options), Mac & cheese, salad, fruit & more. Bring your friends. All are welcome!
In today’s day and age, perhaps some people would prefer that the 30-Day Kick Start biblical texts below be hyperlinked to their full text via our electronic devices. We understand. But today, we challenge you to be less “techie” with prayer and Scripture.

While there often is great value in Bible apps and online prayer tools, an increasingly computer-driven life can also be a deterrent to deeper growth in prayer.

The temptation to multi-task or to quickly check a notification grows stronger and stronger for many. Stop and challenge yourself. Pick up an actual, physical Bible, and take a minute to locate the Gospel passage from the 30-Day Kick Start.

Unplug for 15 minutes each day in order to meditate on God’s Word. No dings, no pings, no frills, no multi-tasking. Just you, the Lord, and His Word. It has always been a life-changing practice, and it always will be. Jesus said “when you pray, go to your inner room, close the door, and pray to your Father in secret,” (Matthew 6:6).

Cards with the suggested scripture readings are available in the Commons. Please pick one up and accept the challenge.

Busy Student Retreat
April 7-11

Everything about this retreat is intended to help deepen your awareness of your faith relationship with God. The two most important elements of this retreat are the commitments you make to spend time in personal prayer and reflection each day and meet with a spiritual companion to discuss your journey, as well as, the fruits of your prayer and reflection. Please register at http://bit.ly/2SGJrwA. Contact Tim Higgins with questions. t-higgins@u.northwestern.edu.
This Lent, Sheil has two different group opportunities and one individual opportunity to engage in the journey to "Feed your Spirit." You can:

1. Join a group to discuss Bishop Robert Barron's book "Lenten Gospel Reflections"

2. Join a group to discuss videos with reflection questions around a common theme. The video and commentary will be sent to you via text or email once a week to watch at your convenience and you will gather as a group to discuss reactions/reflections.

(Text EngageSheil to 84576 to join the group, then follow the instructions or wait for Mary to enroll you after you fill out the form). You may choose from among three themes)

3. You can simply receive the video and reflections and use them for self reflection if you don't have time to join a group (Text EngageSheil to 84576 to join and follow the instructions or wait for Mary to enroll you after you fill out the form)

Follow this link to sign up for small group or individual reflections.

To join a small group register at http://bit.ly/2ItnfC8
