CORPUS CHRISTI STORY LAB
Our Catholic ministry at Northwestern University’s Chicago campus has been gifted an interesting, yet mysterious Corpus Christi

WRITE THE STORY - UNCOVER THE MYSTERY
Join Us in This Collaborative Learning Project
A facilitator and an author will guide the process

WHAT WE KNOW
The Corpus was brought to the states from Austria.
The position of the body is characteristic of medieval iconography depicting the medieval devotion to the suffering Christ on the cross.
This type of devotion was typical among the friars, particularly the Franciscans, in the West.

WHAT CAN WE IMAGINE?
Who was the artist?
What was its journey?
Who prayed before it in during medieval times?
What were their prayers?
Was it part of a community?
