

Black lives matter to God and they matter to us.

Black lives matter to God and they matter to us. The Sheil Catholic Center staff recognize that the conviction announced in the Derek Chauvin trial today is another step in the struggle for racial justice and an end to police violence against people of color.

Today, we pray for the family of George Floyd, all those killed unjustly and unnecessarily, and those who continue to suffer on a daily basis due to white supremacy. At the same time, we know that prayer gives us strength for action and we will continue the work that we must do as a faith community to work for the kin-dom where every human life is valued as being part of God's family.

Please reach out if you'd like to talk. Our campus ministers are here for you. We also welcome all students to join our Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion group by contacting Tim Higgins at t-higgins@u.northwestern.edu. Let us pray and work for the kin-dom together.

The Sheil Catholic Center at Northwestern University is a Newman Center and chapel whose primary mission is to serve the university's Catholic students. The Sheil Center also welcomes people who choose to be Associates of the Sheil community and to actively support its mission. Students and associates seek to grow together in our knowledge and practice of our faith.

We worship God, share the Gospel, and serve those in need.
