Profession of Faith (Please stand.)

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

[All bow their head at the following words] and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Universal Prayer

Response: Lord, hear our prayer.

At the conclusion of the prayer, respond "Amen," and be seated.

As Catholics, we fully participate in the celebration of the Eucharist when we receive Holy Communion. We are encouraged to receive Communion devoutly and frequently. If you are not receiving Holy Communion because you aren't Catholic or aren't prepared, you may still come forward in the Communion procession, please cross your arms over your chest, and receive a blessing.

The center sections of the Chapel move to the center aisle for the Communion procession. The side sections of the Chapel move to the outer wall for the Communion procession.

After receiving Holy Communion, or a blessing, please return to your seat for the remainder of the Mass and kneel or be seated and join in singing the Communion Song and Meditation.
